ECJ email newsletter

The European Cleaning Journal monthly email newsletter is now firmly established and has gone from strength to strength - it is a most popular addition to the ECJ package. It is emailed at the beginning of each month to 30,000 cleaning professionals across Europe and other parts of the world, completely free of charge. Anyone who wants to receive it simply registers at the magazine's website.

As a bi-monthly magazine, ECJ cannot always bring latest news to the industry as it happens. With the ECJ newsletter, however, we keep the sector updated on latest events, new product launches and important developments. And this news is going direct to the inbox of top industry buyers and decision makers - offering advertisers an exciting new opportunity to market more directly to them.

www.europeancleaningjournal.com

The ECJ website features all content from the magazine in a searchable, easy-to-access format. Not only that, europeancleaningjournal.com is also a fast-moving news site and exciting new platform for blogs and other valuable information that will not be found in the magazine.

Designed with the aim of offering a single source of cleaning industry information internationally, the ECJ site is also translated into a number of languages apart from English.

The European Cleaning Directory has become a key reference source and product guide for purchasers of cleaning equipment, chemicals and materials across Europe. It is a major feature of the European Cleaning Journal website. It comprises comprehensive A-Z listings of manufacturers and suppliers worldwide, together with a guide to which manufacturer produces which products.

The Directory element of the ECJ website has numerous advantages for users - they can search for information in a targeted way, send email messages and view websites from the Directory, as well as having the entire contents literally at the push of a button.

The ECJ website europeancleaningjournal.com offers exciting and limitless opportunities for advertisers. It features extremely high profile and innovative positions and advertising can be targeted more exclusively according to different sections. Detailed information available on request.

European Cleaning & Hygiene Awards 2021

2016 saw the launch of ECJ's annual European Cleaning & Hygiene Awards - the first programme of its kind to recognise and reward standards of excellence across the professional cleaning sector, at all its levels. So far four awards ceremonies have taken place - Barcelona in 2016, Rome in 2017, Berlin in 2018 and London in 2019. In 2021 we move to Brussels, where the ceremony will take place on November 4.

As the only pan-European publication serving the cleaning sector, ECJ has as its main objective the promotion of the highest in professional standards and the recognition of our industry's expertise - in the pages of the magazine and through its website.

Editor Michelle Marshall explains: "ECJ is privileged to have a real insight into all areas of the sector across Europe, therefore for us it is a natural progression to lead an awards programme which encourages all stakeholders to share their achievements - and to host an awards dinner celebrating all that is so positive about the industry."

The 2021 European Cleaning & Hygiene Awards will once again be a truly European event in a new host city. A wide range of sponsorship opportunities are available - the benefits of sponsorships include:

Valuable networking opportunities with key influencers, decision makers and industry leaders

Effective platform from which to support the cleaning industry

Unrivalled exposure before, during and after the event - as a sponsor you will feature on all publicity, marketing and editorial material online and in the pages of ECJ. At the awards event there are various promotional opportunities.
